“God’s in charge, maybe we should listen to him!”

An evening with Syndicated Radio Host Mike Church.

There is one thing that nearly every Catholic agrees upon today: the Modern World, inspired by Beelzebub, has set its sights on destroying the family. Well, it’s the bottom of the 9th inning and the Diaboli’s are up 6 runs with the hapless Catholics at bat. There’s 1 out, nobody on, but a guy named Moses is on deck and he’s got a secret weapon: the 4th Commandment!

“Those searching for a solution to fight the modern world’s winning assault on the family will be astonished that the answer has been right in front of us all along and Mike explains it with his famous wit and wisdom.” - David Simpson
